Georgia Agnes Martinka Schmidt, 91, went to her heavenly home with the Lord on Saturday, January 13, 2018. She was born on January 8, 1927 in rural West St.Paul, San Patricio County, Texas to Peter Martinka and Mary Anna Krchnak. Georgia was born to a large Catholic Czech farming family. The Martinka, Vanecek and Rozypal Families moved to San Patricio County from Williamson County in the mid 1920's. Georgia started school in 1933 at the Miculastic School, a rural country school located about 5 miles west of St. Paul. Georgia spent several years in Vattman near Riviera living with her eldest sister, Lillie and attended Vattman School.

The family endured the hardships of the Great Depression. Georgia graduated from Sinton High School in 1946. Following graduation after WWII, she helped with the family and farm. Georgia married William Schmidt in 1947 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Sinton. They met after the war at a Catholic Youth Dance in San Patricio. Shortly after their wedding, they purchased a farm from Georgia's cousin, George Vanecek, and made it their homestead for 71 years. Georgia worked tirelessly to turn the homestead into a home and she and William raised nine children on the farm. Later in life, the two enjoyed spending time there with their grandchildren and great grandchildren. Georgia also assisted William during his agricultural career engaging in the production of hogs, cattle, hay, silage, vegetables, cotton and grain. They were innovative farmers in the forefront of activities such as irrigation, custom grain harvesting and vegetable production. In 1972, Georgia and William took over operation of Pete's Place and after a fire in 1974, rebuilt the establishment as Schmidt's Country Store, which they operated until their retirements in 2007 at the age of 80. Georgia was known as a friendly, caring, loving and helpful person. Everyone was a friend. She enjoyed painting, dancing, dominoes, canning, cooking and especially, family life on the farm. As a lifelong Catholic, she was diligent in her service to the Catholic Church. For many years, Georgia was the Schmidt Family matriarch and loved spending time with her large family. She was a member of the Greatest Generation, weathered the Great Depression and World War II, lived her whole life on a farm and exemplified the American Dream. But above all, she served her Lord, Jesus Christ. She is preceded in death by her parents, Peter and Mary Martinka, husband, William Schmidt, sisters, Lillie, Theresa, and Bernice, brothers, Paul, Rudy and Lewis and son, Randy. She was the last member of a family generation that included 110 first cousins. She is survived by daughters, Mandy (Gwynn) Senf of Sinton, Macy (David) Culpepper of Sinton, sons, William III (Gayle) of Richmond, Texas, Louis (Carol) of Tuleta, Texas, David of West St. Paul, Allan of West St. Paul, Lawrence (Loretta) of Ardmore, OK and Robert (Robin) of Sinton. She is also survived by 22 grandchildren, 33 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great-grandchildren, numerous nephews, nieces, cousins, relatives and friends. She is also survived by sister-in-law, Joan Winsauer of Odem. Pallbearers will be her grandsons, Chad Schmidt, Casey Schmidt, Wesley Schmidt, Andrew Schmidt, Randal Schmidt, Richard Schmidt, David Schmidt and Kenneth Schmidt. A holy rosary was recited at 6 PM Thursday, January 18, 2018 at Ritchea-Gonzales Funeral Home Chapel. Funeral mass was celebrated at 10:30 AM Friday, January 19, 2018 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Interment followed at Sinton Cemetery.

Michael Douglass Shipman was born January 25, 1939, in El Paso, Texas, to Jimmy and Ruth Shipman. He passed away March 14, 2022, at 3 PM. Shortly after starting school, his family moved to Lubbock, Texas. He completed his education at Texas Tech with two degrees. Immediately upon graduating from Texas Tech, he joined Uncle Sam in the Army during the Korean War. He was in the Army two years and two years in the Army Reserves and was discharged a Sargent. He was a Mason and a member of the American Legion. (I asked him if it was hard becoming a Mason and he said extremely hard!) After leaving the Army, he was hired by Kroger and managed a Kroger grocery store in Dallas, Texas. He had some humorous stories and some serious experiences to tell. He moved to Houston and worked for Crown Zellerbach, a large company headquartered in California. He worked for several companies, always in sales. He worked for Royal Paper Company that had over 80 salesmen. Each year end the company had a sales party announcing different sales awards. Mike won Salesman of the Year five years in a row. He lost the sixth year to a company that had twelve salesmen. He congratulated the men and then said he would beat them the next year, and he did! He and his wife, Betty, moved to Kerrville, Texas, where they started their own company, Mike Shipman and Associates. They had five salesmen working for them and his territory included five different states. Mike had a stroke in 2009 and was unable to continue his business. Mike and Betty moved to Odem, Texas, in 2010, Betty's hometown where she was born and had numerous family that she could depend on for help in taking care of Mike. Mike had two sons - Michael Douglass Shipman II and wife, and Bryan Stephen Shipman and wife, Ivana. He had three grandsons, Michael Douglass Shipman III, James Mathew Shipman, and John Michael Shipman, one great grandson, and one great granddaughter. He had two stepdaughters, Dian Kay Oppel and Connie Lynn Hunter, eight step grandchildren, and eleven step great grandchildren. He had several cousins and numerous friends. If you were fortunate enough to have known Mike, you would never forget him. Graveside services will be held at 10:30 AM, Thursday, March 17, 2022, at Evergreen Cemetery in Odem.

Naomi "Jeanne" Walker Spacek was born in Sinton, Texas on November 1, 1948 to Harold and Roberta W. Walker. Her sisters, Francine and Sharon, were her best friends. She attended Del Mar College in Corpus Christi, Texas and went on to earn a bachelor's degree in science, majoring in Home Economics from Southwest State University in San Marcos. She met her husband Victor Spacek in Hallettsville, Tx where they were both teachers. They married on May 28, 1972 and moved to Victoria, Tx. They had two children, Stephanie and Brian. Jeanne was loved by everyone she met. She was a talented seamstress, collector of antiques and teacups, scrapbooker, and loved to decorate her beautiful home. Her love of the holidays, especially Christmas and Halloween inspired her children and grandchildren to follow in her footsteps. Her Christmas Snow Village was a magical site to behold. She transformed an entire room into a winter wonderland. Jeanne's talent for teaching and decorating led her to leading unforgettable vacation bible school programs and teaching Sunday School at Northside Baptist Church. She loved to read and always wanted to visit Australia. A kid at heart, Nana knew how to have fun. She spent hours teaching chess to her grand kids and playing board games, puzzles and make believe. Guilt trip extraordinaire, she knew exactly how to keep her family in line, always out of love. Her faith was evident by sharing scriptures and verses with her family. Her strength was inspiring proof of the love she had for Jesus. Jeanne went home to the Lord on May 10, 2021 and is singing and dancing in heaven. Jeanne is survived by her loving family, her husband, Victor Spacek of Victoria, her son, Brian Spacek of Victoria, her daughter, Stephanie Hamilton of Garden City, Kansas, her sisters, Francine Lukehart of Waskom, Tx and Sharon Cobb of Aransas Pass, Tx, seven grandchildren and six great grandchildren and many other relatives and friends. Funeral services will be held at 10 AM Tuesday, May 25, 2021 at Ritchea Gonzales Funeral Home in Sinton. Interment will follow in the Sinton Cemetery in Sinton.

Charles W. Spencer, 82, passed away during the early morning of March 8, 2017 at Brookdale Northshore in Portland, Tx. Charles was born May 6, 1934 to Joe Weaver and Lena Wilson Spencer in Falfurrias, Tx. He lived in Sinton from the time he was in 2nd grade until 1978. It was then that he moved his family to Carrizo Springs. He and his wife, Lyn, also lived in West Columbia, Tyler and settled in Mathis about 1991 until his retirement in 2003. He then moved to Portland in 2004 until his death. Charles was born into, raised and lived a strong Baptist faith. He served as a deacon in nearly every Baptist church he was a member of. He had put his life and trust on God's hands at a young age and never swayed from it Galatians 2:20. He graduated from Sinton High School in 1952. That's when he went to work full-time at Commercial State Bank. He started in the bookkeeping department and at the time of his retirement he was Sr. Vice President. In 1954 he took a leave of absence from his job to enlist in the United States Air Force. He was stationed in Japan for two years. He served for 3 1/2 years and was honorably discharged in 1957. He was one of the original members of the Sinton Lions Club and he was a Lion's Club member wherever he lived. Yet in Mathis he joined the Kiwanis Club. He was always a proud member of the communities he lived in and Charles was also known for his fairness and honesty. Charles married Lyn Wolleson September 5, 1959. They demonstrated what a marriage means through sickness and health, richer or poorer until death do you part to their only child, Judy Lynne. They had a strong marriage of 40 1/2 years until Lyn's passing in 2000. Those waiting to welcome him to heaven are his wife, Lyn, grandson, Charles William Stroman, his youngest sister, Ilene Walker, nephew, Joe Weaver Spencer, parents, Joe Weaver and Lena Spencer, brother-in-law, Travis Wolleson. Left here on earth to share his memories are his daughter, Judy Lynne (Leonard) Stroman, granddaughters, Tiffany Lynne (Max) Cochran, Shannon Kay Stroman, Emily Carroll (Cameron) Smith, great grandchildren, Rebecca Joyce Cochran, Elliott Charles Stroman, Garrett Samuel and Hayden James Smith all from Portland, brother, Joe R. Spencer of Kerrville, sister, Bea McClintoc of Trinidad, Tx, brother-in-law, Jack Walker of Junction City, AK, sister-in-law, Susie Wolleson Williams, his nieces and nephews and his many friends that he held close to his heart. The family would like to thank everybody and the residents at Brookdale Northshore for their love, compassion, friendship and watchful eyes as Charles struggled with his Parkinsons and dementia. Also the compassion from Nurses on Wheels Hospice. It will never be forgotten. Visitation of family and friends was Friday, March 10, 2017 from 5:00-7:00PM with the family present at Ritchea-Gonzales Funeral Home. This celebration of life was at the chapel at the Ritchea-Gonzales Funeral Home on Saturday, March 11, 2017 at 10:00AM. Interment followed at Sinton Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations to your local Lions Club or civic organization or the South Texas Children's Home would be appreciated.
