Our beloved aunt Juanita Morin passed away peacefully on Monday, July 3, 2023, in Austin, Texas. Juanita had celebrated her 98th birthday with her nephews and nieces just three months earlier. This celebration was one of the happiest moments of her long and well lived life. She was born in Panna Maria, Texas in 1925 and moved to Sinton, Texas as a young child. There she lived with her extended family until 2022. She was the last surviving sibling of a family which included 9 other brothers and sisters: Gregorio Morin, Eusebia Morin, Santos Martinez, Isabel M. Morin, Jr., Ramon Morin, Jose Morin, Marina Morin, Maria Del Carmen Morin and Lupe Morin. Her father Jose Isabel Ochoa Morin passed away in 1964 and her mother Maria Sanchez Montemayor Morin died in 1966. Juanita Morin was a deeply caring person who helped raise her younger siblings and took care of her parents in the latter years of their lives. She possessed great intelligence and a great memory. Even in her 98th year of life she could recall names and important dates from decades past. Juanita was a great cook and a master gardener who loved sunflowers most of all. Although she never had children of her own, she loved her numerous nephews and nieces as her own. She shared with them her extensive knowledge of the family genealogy. Juanita also recounted many life stories of herself and her siblings to all who would inquire. Juanita Morin was well traveled. As a young woman she traveled often with her family to California to harvest grapes and other crops. Later in life she visited many cities in Mexico along with her sisters and brother Gregorio. Although she never learned to drive she was always ready for a good road trip--a very willing family travel companion. Our Aunt Juanita's passing concludes a generation of the Morin family that spans over 100 years. And while we are saddened by this final chapter, we are comforted by her legacy. In her time, she gave us her sage wisdom, the open hospitality of her home and most importantly her unconditional love. Rest in eternal peace Tia Juana. You will always live in our hearts! A visitation will be held on Saturday, July 15, 2023, from 8:00-9:15 am at Ritchea Gonzales Funeral Home in Sinton, Tx. Ada Lee Mutchler, January 20, 1937 - September 30, 2023, The Lord and Melvin have welcomed Ada Lee home. Ada Lee Hill was born on January 20, 1937, to Oma Evelyn Westmoreland Hill and Thomas Carette Hill. Ada Lee was the youngest child, affectionately known as "Our Baby Doll." Ada Lee had a total of 11 older siblings. John Hill, Paul Hill, Bogardus Hill, Ben Hill, Bernice (Hill) Byrne, Kate Hill, Evelyn (Hill) Creamer, Susan (Hill) Hofner, Marguerite Hill, Ida Bell (Hill) Copeland, and Tom Hill. Ada Lee was raised five miles west of Sinton on Hill Road, where her parents were farmers and ranchers. Ada Lee's chores on the farm included making butter, ironing clothes, and helping work cattle and horses. Ada Lee was a true equine enthusiast and loved riding her horses. At the tender age of four, Ada Lee would ride with her rat terrier, Maggie, on the back of her draft horse, Warrior. She would ride with her animals with a note around her neck from her mother to tell the neighbors what time Ada Lee needed to be sent home. As Ada Lee grew up, so did her adventures and talents. Ada Lee would ride Warrior to the movies at the Rialto theater in town. Without fail, during the best part of the picture show, she would have to go and check on Warrior to ensure he had not rubbed his bridle off. While attending Sinton High School, Ada Lee lent her time and gifts to the Sinton Kiwanis Club by volunteering to play the piano for their meetings at the J&A Café Clubroom. Ada Lee also played with two bands as a musician and a vocalist. The Sinton High School Ramblers was the first band she performed with. The band members included Jimmy Don Walker on guitar, Ada Lee on piano and vocals, Loyd Gonzalez on bass fiddle and Eddie Tyra on the fiddle. The second band was comprised of Louis Hunt on the fiddle, Pat Koliba on the guitar, Tom Hill on the drums, Dave Odem on the bass fiddle and Ada Lee on the piano, accordion, and vocals. Ada Lee also made guest appearances as a vocalist for Adolph Hofner and the Pearl Wranglers dances and shows. Ada Lee graduated from Sinton High School on May 25, 1956, and planned to attend business college. However, Ada Lee ended up on a different path when Leo Owen offered her the opportunity to work at the San Patricio County Farm Bureau the Monday after graduation. For 57 years, Ada Lee served as the Farm Bureau County Secretary and office manager until she retired in September 2013. Ada Lee received numerous accolades during her career with San Patricio County Farm Bureau, which included receiving the Texas Farm Bureau Pioneer Award in 2007, Secretary of the Year Award multiple years, winning the county scrapbook award for seven years straight, promoting Ag in the Classroom yearly, and participating in the Texas Farm Bureau's annual Beet Checkout in conjunction with local grocers. Ada Lee never met a stranger. She was a natural ambassador promoting and representing Sinton and San Patricio County, Texas, her entire life. Ada Lee represented the Sinton Plymouth Oilers, the 1957 national semi-professional baseball champions, where she won first place at the Peanut Festival in Floresville. Ada Lee was a founding member of the San Patricio Riding and Roping Club, serving as board secretary for numerous years, promoting play days and rodeo events for youth and adults. Ada Lee also served as Vice-President and guiding mentor of the Sinton Business Professional Women's Club. This group aimed to promote better opportunities for women in the Workforce. Ada Lee was heavily involved in the Sinton Chamber of Commerce and was named Outstanding Woman of the Year. However, Ada Lee will most fondly be remembered as the City of Sinton's beloved Parade Marshall for over 53 consecutive years. Ada Lee's annual parades and festivals included the Old Fiddler's Festival, Homecoming, and illuminated Christmas parades. These parades were known across South Texas as the best small-town parade, with up to 130 floats from near and far. The Sinton community loved the variety of floats Ada Lee would showcase in her parade lineups. Likewise, Ada Lee served as the Sinton Chamber of Commerce's ambassador, representing Sinton and the Chamber in numerous community parades around South Texas for over 40 years. In 2015, Ada Lee was recognized as the Sinton High School Hall of Fame Alumnus of the Year. Ada Lee was also a member of the Taft Blackland Museum and the Red Hatters Society Club. Ada Lee met the love of her life, Melvin, in high school and were married on March 2, 1963, in Sinton at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Ada Lee and Melvin loved dancing to all genres of music across South Texas. From Mexican conjunto to German and Czech polka bands, you could find these two dancing the nights away, taking in new sights, working cattle, and riding horses together. Melvin was a lifelong farmer and rancher, and he and Ada Lee were avid proponents of production agriculture, investing in tomorrow's ag producers and leaders with organizations including the Taft FFA, Taft 4-H Club, San Patricio and Aransas County A&H Shows and the Brazos County Youth Livestock Shows. Ada Lee and Melvin resided in Taft for 55 years. Ada Lee was an active member of the Holy Family Catholic Church in Taft, where she played the organ and piano for weekend masses.
